"Modern Europe, 1750-2004"

This introductory course surveys European history from the mid-18th century through the present. Using intellectual treatises, novels, short stories, music, and other primary sources, students will examine the major landmarks in the social, intellectual, political, and cultural histories of Europe since approximately 1750 -- the Enlightenment and the French Revolution, the emergence of the nation-state, industrialization, socialism, imperialism, and the construction and fragmentation of "modern Europe" in the 20th century.

Required Readings

The following books are required for this course and are available for purchase at the UNCG Bookstore in Elliot University Center. Copies of the books will also be placed on reserve in Jackson Library.

Kishlansky, Geary, and O'Brien. Civilization in the West, 5th Edition, Volume C
Voltaire, Candide (Penguin).
Marx, The Communist Manifesto (International Publishers).
Orwell, Burmese Days (Harvest).
Camus, The Plague (Vintage).
Kovaly, Under a Cruel Star (Holmes & Meier).

Other short readings for this course will be available via electronic reserve through Jackson Library.

Grading

Grades for this course will be assigned according to the following scheme:

20% -- Midterm 1
20% -- Midterm 2
15% -- Paper
35% -- Final
10% -- Participation (includes attendance, talking during class discussions, and written responses to readings)

Exams

There will be two midterm exams in this course. Midterm 1 will be held on Monday, September 20th. Midterm 2 will be held on Wednesday, October 27th. Each exam will consist of identifications (based upon the Key Word terms listed on each lecture outline and posted on the web site) and an essay portion. The Final Exam will be held on Monday, December 13th, from 8:00 - 11:00 a.m. in 161 Eberhart. The exam will consist of a Key Word ID section, a passage ID section (drawn from the assigned documents for this course), and an essay portion. Make-up exams will only be given in extreme circumstances (e.g. serious illness, bereavement), and a note must accompany requests. No "Incomplete" grades will be given.

Paper

There will be one major written assignment in this course, an essay of no less than five (5) pages on a topic to be assigned in advance. A choice of topics will be provided approximately 2-3 weeks prior to the due date, and students will be expected to draw upon the readings from the course in producing their essay. This is NOT a research paper; no outside reading or research beyond that related to the course will be required. The paper will be due Monday, November 22 by 4 p.m. in the History Department main office (221 McIver).
