Required Texts:

Adams, Winthrop Lindsay. Alexander the Great: Legacy of a Conqueror. (New York: Pearson/Longman, 2005).

Kagan, Donald, Steven Ozment and Frank M. Turner. The Western Heritage, Volume I: To 1740, Ninth Edition. (Upper Saddle River, NJ: Prentice Hall, 2007).

King, Ross. Michelangelo and the Pope's Ceiling. (New York: Penguin Books, 2003).

Mellor, Ronald. Augustus and the Creation of the Roman Empire. (Boston: Bedford/St. Martin's, 2006).

Course Objectives:

Students will be expected to:

- Understand and retain the basic facts and framework of Western Civilization from its Mesopotamian origins through the end of the Thirty Years' War in 1648.
- Analyze and synthesize relevant information; i.e., interpret historical facts
- Develop a personal and historical sense of time relevant to Western Civilization
- Think critically and make informed judgments!

Procedures/Assignments:

As you have already seen, this course will require you to do a significant amount of reading. While I admit that the reading load is demanding, it is very manageable provided that you follow my recommendations and don't allow yourselves to fall behind. Class discussion of your readings will, at times, take up a significant portion of certain class sessions, but because this is a survey course the majority of each class period will be devoted to lecture. It will be necessary for you to have completed your readings in The Western Heritage prior to coming to class for two reasons. One, class discussions will be difficult to conduct if you haven't read, and two, the lectures will be more understandable if you have read the assigned material ahead of time. This course will not be difficult provided that you remain current with all your reading. Students who fall behind in their reading typically find it extremely difficult to catch up.

Attendance:

Punctuality and regular attendance are necessary in order for you to do your best in any college class because you are still responsible for all material covered in class whether or not you are there. Each student will be allowed four (4) absences during the semester with no academic penalty. Each additional absence will result in 10 points being deducted from your final grade average. Any student who wishes to receive a grade of “W” must drop the class on or before Friday, October 6th. Habitual tardiness, either alone or in combination with absences, will also adversely affect your final grade. In most cases I will notify any student whenever he/she has reached 4 absences, but please do not rely on me to keep you informed. It is your responsibility to keep up with your absences. It is also your responsibility to see me after class if you come in after attendance has been taken, as failure to do so may result in your being marked absent for that class session.

This class meets twice per week and I expect you to come to class on time and to remain in class for the entire session unless you have a genuine emergency during class (illness, etc.) or unless you speak to me prior to class and advise me that you need to leave early. I consider this to be common courtesy to both the class and myself.

Written assignments turned in late will be penalized 10 points per day late. A written assignment will be considered late if it is not turned in at the beginning of class on the specified date. No exceptions will be made for students who: run out of ink, run out of paper—or both—have computer/disk problems, have car trouble, have to work late, have to go to work early, couldn't find a parking space, had to go to the beach, couldn't get back from the beach, had to study for a test in another class, had to complete an assignment for another class, or simply forgot the due date, assignment, etc.. . .All requests to take a missed test will be considered on an individual basis. Under no circumstances will any student be allowed to makeup more than two tests! Any student who misses a test must contact me prior to returning to class to inquire about the possibility of taking a makeup. (Makeup tests may prove to be more difficult)

I reserve the right to drop any student—at any time during the semester—because of excessive absences.

Grading:

Tests (3) MC & Essay	40%
Book quiz/writing assignments	40%
Final Exam (Essay Only)	20%
