Fall Semester 2013

Course Description

This course is an introduction to the pre-modern history of Asia. We will focus on the following Asian countries: China, Japan, Korea, and Vietnam. Most students in the West may only be familiar with these nations in the context of the traumatic episodes of war and violence and revolution that swept the region throughout the twentieth century. However, these countries are heirs to long histories of cultural brilliance and diversity. In this class we will first explore how the history of this region has shaped the common bonds that bring this part of the world together as a whole. Secondly, we will consider how the literary traditions of these various societies depict the social and political conditions from which modern Asian nations would later emerge.

Students taking this course should reach the following goals by the end of the semester:

- ❑ Construct persuasive written arguments concerned with historical topics.
- ❑ Learn of the fundamental historical development of ancient Asian societies in the regions of modern-day China, Japan, Korea, and Vietnam from earliest times to ca. 1800.
- ❑ Understand better the effect the ancient past has had on the modern world.
- ❑ Exhibit self-motivation and self-expression by exploring and asking questions regarding historical topics beyond personal life experiences.

Course Requirements

There will be a take-home final exam, six in-class quizzes (including a skills quiz), and a 5-7 page (12-point font Times New Roman font, double-spaced, 1" margins, paginated) "think piece" paper. The paper will be both submitted to Blackboard's "Safe Assign" data-base by class time on Friday, November 22nd and submitted in hard copy form in class the same day. The schedule for the six in-class quizzes is noted in the lecture schedule. The take-home final exam will be handed out in class on Monday, December 2nd and it must be both submitted to Blackboard's "Safe Assign" data-base and submitted in hard copy form to my office on Monday, December 9th. Attendance at all lecture and discussion sections is expected; an attendance list may be compiled at the start of each class meeting. Moreover, the completion of all required written assignments is necessary for a passing grade. No "incompletes" will be given for this class. Please remember to plan ahead!

E-mail Accounts

I will require that all students establish e-mail accounts with Internet access. This course will occasionally involve interaction between the instructor and students outside of the lecture period. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Grading:

Skills Quiz	Ungraded
5 Graded Quizzes	30% (6% each)
Class Participation (film responses, group discussion, general participation)	30%
*Film Responses	(10%)
*Blackboard Discussion Questions and Reflections	(15%)
*General Participation	(5%)
Paper	20%
Final Exam	20%

Quizzes

The quizzes will cover materials from the assigned readings, lectures, films, and other in-class presentations. I will go over all assigned readings, either during lectures or during discussion sections. You are responsible for anything that is covered in class, whether or not you were present for a given class period.

No Make-up Quizzes

No make-up quizzes will be offered for this class. Instead, you may drop one of your five graded quizzes, only if you have taken the ungraded skills quiz at the beginning of the semester. Once you have missed one quiz, all subsequent missed quizzes will be graded at 0% credit.

Final Take-home Examination

There is a 6-8 page, typed take-home exam. I will distribute the exam questions on the last day of the course, and you will be required to construct an essay that clearly answers two of these questions while using the primary and secondary sources provided for the class. The exams will be due in my office (2111 MHRA) no later than 3pm on Monday, December 9th. We'll talk more about this exam later in the course.

BLACKBOARD ASSIGNMENTS

Weeks Featuring Films

Four in-class film screenings will take place throughout the semester. Written responses will always be due the Sunday evening at 11:59pm following the film. (Example: For the film shown on Wednesday, September 25, the written response is due Sunday, September 29 by 11:59pm.) Prior to each screening, you will receive a film-guide handout featuring questions which address the film in terms of weekly course readings. You are expected to prepare a well-written and thoughtful response to each film guide, taking care to thoroughly answer all questions. A thorough response requires a minimum of one well-developed paragraph for each question. These responses must be posted to the appropriate forum on Blackboard. These due dates are listed on the Blackboard forums themselves. Film Responses will be evaluated by the Graduate Assistant. Late film responses will be penalized half a letter grade for each day beyond the original due date. All film responses are required assignments.

*If you miss an in-class film screening, the films are available in the Jackson Library.

* Several times during the semester, students will have both film responses and reading responses due.

Weeks Featuring Readings

Each Friday you will splinter into several smaller groups to discuss primary sources and articles illustrative of themes in this course. In preparation for these activities, you are expected to read the assigned sources and prepare two well-considered discussion questions for presentation in class. These questions must be posted to the appropriate forum on Blackboard by the preceding Thursday at 11:59pm. Print and bring these questions with you to present the following morning among your discussion group.

Following each discussion you are responsible for submitting a one-paragraph (3-5 sentences) discussion reflection or summary. These reflections must be posted to the appropriate forum on Blackboard by the following Sunday at 11:59pm. Were there points in the text that you wish had been discussed or elaborated upon in greater depth? Have you come to a new understanding of the text since the Friday meeting? If so, please feel free to note those points here.

Discussion Questions and Reflections will be evaluated together as one assignment by the Graduate Assistant. Late submissions will receive no credit. You are required to submit at least 10 (ten) Discussion Questions and Reflections during the semester to receive a passing grade.

*If you are unfamiliar with Blackboard, it is your responsibility to learn to use this online learning tool.

The written exercises will be graded on a check, check-plus, or check-minus scale. If you receive straight “checks” for all exercises, you will have earned a “B” for this part of the course. To earn a “check-plus” you need to demonstrate that you have thought imaginatively about the question and have put some genuine effort into your answer. The purpose of these exercises is to gain experience in writing, and they should therefore help prepare you for the paper and the take-home exam.

“Think Piece” Paper

The “Think Piece” Paper, a response to assigned topics from the required text The Tale of Kieu, will be based on your readings, section discussions, and the lectures. This paper is not a research paper; therefore, no outside reading is required. However, the quality of your writing, particularly the clarity and persuasiveness of your argument, will factor into the final grading. Late papers will be penalized half a letter grade for each day beyond the original due date.

Web-site

This class is served by a companion Blackboard site, through which you may access all the on-line e-reserves. Here students can access course information, such as scheduled events (i.e. the syllabus you now hold in your hand), as well as terms mentioned in lecture. I will also list links to web sites of interest to our class. Please refer to the class site periodically for such materials.

Academic Integrity Policy

Each student is required to sign the Academic Integrity Policy on all major work submitted for the course. Please refer to the UNCG Undergraduate Bulletin/Graduate Bulletin.

Special Accommodations

Students requesting accommodations based on a disability must be registered with the Office of Disability Services in 215 Elliott University Center, 334-5440, <http://ods.dept.uncg.edu/>, ods@uncg.edu. If you have a documented disability and want to discuss academic accommodations, please talk with me before the end of the second week.
