Required Texts:

Daniel Walker Howe. What Hath God Wrought: The Transformation of America, 1815-1848.
(New York: Oxford University Press, 2007). ISBN 9780195392432

Gordon S. Wood. Empire of Liberty: A History of the Early Republic, 1789-1815.
(New York: Oxford University Press, 2009)

Learning Objectives:

Upon satisfactorily completing this course students should be able to:

- Demonstrate a clear understanding of many of the important historical figures and events that shaped American History between 1789 and 1848.
- Analyze and synthesize relevant information; i.e., interpret relevant historical facts, both orally and in writing
- Explain the significance of key issues associated with this period of American history.
- Think critically and make informed judgments about key topics

Procedures/Assignments:

It will be essential for you to keep up with your readings. If you follow the guidelines in the syllabus and don't allow yourselves to fall behind, you should have no trouble managing the workload for this class. Much of what we do will take place in a seminar format with discussion of your readings routinely taking up a significant portion of each class session. Therefore, it will be necessary for you to have completed your assigned readings prior to the first day of class in any given week. You should be prepared to be called on and to contribute each and every session as class participation factors significantly in your final grade. Class discussions will be difficult for you if you haven't read and lecture material will be more understandable if you have read the assigned material ahead of time.

Attendance:

Punctuality and regular attendance are necessary in order for you to do your best in any college class because you are still responsible for all material covered in class whether or not you are there. As indicated below, a substantial portion of your grade for this course will be based on attendance and class participation. During each class session there will be numerous opportunities for students to offer comments, ask questions, and participate in class discussions. If you are not here you cannot participate. Students accumulating more than 4 unexcused absences will have their final grade reduced by one letter. Excessive absences may result in your being dropped from the class. Any student who wishes to receive a grade of "W" must drop the class on or before Friday, October 9. Habitual tardiness, either alone or in combination with absences, will also adversely affect your final grade. It is your responsibility to keep up with your absences. It is also your responsibility to see me after class if you come in after attendance has been taken, as failure to do so will result in your being marked absent for that class session. (A minimum of 2 requested absences for religious observances not counted as part of the above).

This class meets three times per week and I expect you to come to class on time and to remain in class for the entire session unless you have a genuine emergency during class, (illness, etc.) or unless you speak to me prior to class and advise me that you need to leave early—please do not make leaving early a habit! I consider this to be common courtesy to everyone in attendance.

All requests to take a missed exam will be considered on an individual basis. Any student who misses an exam must contact me to inquire about the possibility of taking a makeup. (Makeup exams, if permitted, will have to be taken at a time when I am available) No make-ups will be offered on quizzes, as I will drop your two lowest quiz grades.

Note: Laptops, tablets, etc. are not required for this class, but you may use them for taking notes provided you can do so in a responsible manner. While you are in my class please do not use them for ANYTHING else. I will warn a student once for such an infraction—a second offense will result in your being dropped from the class.

Grading:

Quizzes	10%
Participation/Discussion Questions	20%
Midterm Exam	20%
Research Paper (10-12pp)	25%
Final Exam	25%
<hr/>
Course Total	100%

(This course follows a 10 point scale and I do assign +/- to final grades when warranted.)
