COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Social movements often produce enduring changes in the cultural, political, and economic conditions in a given nation or region. In some cases, social movements work in cooperation with a political movement, while in other cases they challenge an existing political structure. This course emphasizes social and political movements in world history from the late 18th century to the present and analyzes the historical conditions from which they arose. While we will address well-known historical figures, students will also analyze the impact that the many unheralded individuals and groups played in creating social change. This is not an American history course, but students will be encouraged to make connections to past events in the United States and to their own lives.

One of the most significant goals of the course is to challenge students to critically interpret the past. Students will analyze arguments made by historians and be encouraged to think like historians. The long-term impact of this course for the student is not merely retaining the facts and concepts they learn about history, but also to help shape the way they approach understanding the past and the impact of past social movements on the world today.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

General Education Historical Perspectives Student Learning Outcomes:

- Use a historical approach to analyze and contextualize primary and secondary sources representing divergent perspectives.
- Utilize evidence to interpret the past coherently, orally and in writing.

General Education Global Non-Western Perspectives Student Learning Outcomes:

- Find, interpret, and evaluate information on diverse cultures.
- Describe interconnections among regions of the world.
- Use diverse cultural frames of reference and alternative perspectives to analyze issues.

MEANINGFUL LEARNING:

The primary goal of any of my history courses is to create meaningful learning for the students. This course has been designed to appeal to a variety of learners through the use of various methods of teaching and assessment. Online learning presents some challenges, but also offers some unique opportunities. I encourage students to take an active role in utilizing this course to help shape their own understanding of social movements and processes of historical change.

IMPORTANCE OF READING THIS SYLLABUS:

It is always important to read a course syllabus carefully, especially for online courses. You are responsible for understanding the content of this syllabus and adhering to the policies that it sets forth. In addition, there will be a syllabus and plagiarism quiz that will count for ten percent of your overall grade for the course!

GRADING:

PROJECTS (10% each: paper, book review, video presentation)	30%
QUIZZES (10% each)	50%
DISCUSSION BOARD (5% for each post, with each post requiring two submissions)	20%

REQUIRED BOOKS:

- Adam Hochschild, King Leopold's Ghost: A Story of Greed, Terror, and Heroism in Colonial Africa (Boston: Houghton Mifflin Co., 1999).
- Elleke Boehmer, Nelson Mandela: A Very Short Introduction (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2008).
- Liang Heng and Judith Shapiro, Son of the Revolution (New York: Vintage Books, 1983).
- Alexander Aviña, Specters of Revolution: Peasant Guerrillas in the Cold War Mexican Countryside (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2014).

READINGS:

Students should take notes on the readings, including factual information, but also noting the central arguments and points of analysis. You should also write down any reactions you have to the readings in your reading notes. Your notes will be helpful on quizzes, discussion boards, and projects. Aside from the books, readings are available on Canvas (Files) or on the internet.

EARLY SUBMISSION OF ASSIGNMENTS:

Any project or quiz can be submitted up to seven days prior to its due date. See “Discussion Board Posts” below for rules on early discussion board submissions.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS:

Late assignments will be penalized ten points (out of 100) each calendar day they are late. Any assignment that is seven days late or more receives a zero. Discussion board posts cannot be turned in late. Any discussion board submissions that are late will automatically receive a score of zero.

COMMUNICATION:

“Three Before Me”: Before e-mailing me, a student should check to see if their question could be answered by 1) Reading the syllabus carefully 2) Checking Canvas for updates, including class announcements 3) Carefully reading a prompt for an assignment or the instructions for a quiz, and carefully watching course videos and viewing class slides.

That said, if a student has done their due diligence in seeking the answer to a question, I am more than happy to assist via e-mail. Students having problems understanding course content can contact me to set up a video conference. I am always up for talking about history!!!

Students can expect e-mail responses within 48 hours, but in almost every case my response will be much quicker. If I have not responded within 48 hours, please check your sent mail to ensure that your e-mail went through. If so, send me a follow-up e-mail.

Students should check Canvas often (3-4 times per week) for updates, including announcements and file uploads. I suggest checking grades frequently (more than once per week) to ensure that you have received credit for your work. If there is a grade concern, let me know immediately.

QUIZZES:

Quizzes should be completed through Canvas, after you have completed all prior tasks. Students can utilize any of the class materials, such as readings, notes, slides, and videos, to help them answer the questions. You may not seek answers from other students, and such an action will be considered an academic integrity violation that will be referred to the Dean of Students Office. Quizzes must be completed by 5:00 P.M. on the due date.

DISCUSSION BOARD POSTS:

Discussion board posts require two separate submissions, which should be clearly labelled:

A) The student's original thoughts on the question or prompt, rooted in evidence from the readings, class slides and/or videos. B) A response to another student's post in which you analyze their statements or provide further evidence to support their initial post. You may post up to a week in advance for submission A if you have completed all the tasks (readings, slides, videos) prior. For submission B, you can post up to two days before the deadline (as that is when submission A is closed). For example, for Discussion Board #1, you can post submission 1A beginning on August 20, but no later than 5:00 P.M. on August 27. Your window for posting submission 1B would be between 5:01 P.M. on August 27 and 5:00 P.M. on August 29. See the class schedule for due dates. Each submission should be 5-8 sentences. Thus, the total would be between 10-16 sentences for submissions A and B combined. You should strictly adhere to these sentence restrictions. Any submission under five sentences will automatically lose points. The instructor will stop reading any single submission after eight sentences.

WHAT SHOULD I WRITE IN MY POSTS? The discussion board posts are a chance for you to demonstrate that you have thought critically about the class readings, videos, and slides. Thus, you should give your thoughts on certain topics (especially controversial ones), but those thoughts should be rooted in some sort of evidence from class readings, slides, or videos. You should think carefully about what you want to say and write clearly. You should make your points as concise as possible. Posts that have a lot of grammar or spelling mistakes will lose points. Submission B should respond in a thoughtful way to another student's post. Always be respectful and never personally attack another student. However, you can challenge another student's interpretation or suggest how their interpretation might be improved. You can also agree with other students' posts, but should not merely reiterate what they said. If you quote or paraphrase an author, put the author's name and the page number. Example: (Hochschild, 58).

SUBMITTING PROJECTS:

Submit projects via e-mail attachment to bwsuttel@uncg.edu no later than 5:00 P.M. by the date listed. The title of your document should be P(number of project) followed by a space and then your last name (Capitalize first letter) and your capitalized first initial.

For example: P1 SuttellB                      Project 2 would be: P2 SuttellB

Written documents should be typed in Microsoft Word. Let me know if this is not possible for you. Use Times New Roman, 12-point font with one-inch margins, and double-spacing. I highly recommend you submit projects a day early to allow for any technical problems, including power or internet outages. Such instances will not be accepted as excuses for late submissions. I also recommend you save your work repeatedly in different formats. A computer crash or lost zip-drive or similar occurrences will not be accepted as excuses for late submissions.

-The paper and the book review require you to use Chicago/Turabian style footnotes for citations. See paper and book review prompts for details.

- Project 2 requires you to submit a video presentation. Details will be included in the prompt (on Canvas). Be sure to strictly adhere to the 3-5 minute presentation guideline.
- All projects must include the following statement followed by the student signature and date. For the video presentation, you may state it verbally or include the statement via e-mail.

I HAVE ABIDED BY THE UNCG Academic Integrity Policy ON THIS ASSIGNMENT.

Student's Signature _____ Date _____

SLIDES:

I highly suggest that you take notes from the slides. Many of the PowerPoint slides include blanks for you to fill-in. The answers for the blanks can be found in a variety of ways. Some of the answers will come from the teacher videos that I have created. Others come from course readings. In other cases, I have provided the answers on the final slide(s) of the presentation, including relevant explanations. Some of the slides have videos or other links embedded in them. If so, you should view the video or link unless otherwise noted.

VIDEOS:

You should take notes from the teacher-created videos and all other class videos. Write down factual information in your notebook, but also write your thoughts about the most significant themes. Feel free to e-mail me with questions if you are unclear on any topic, or if you would like to discuss it further.

PLAGIARISM AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

Any instance of plagiarism will result in a zero for the assignment and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for appropriate action. Any use of sources (books, documents, articles, internet sites, etc.) must be cited properly. Blatant or egregious acts of plagiarism (including copying and pasting) or cheating may result in an "F" for the course and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office. Students must view the UNCG videos on plagiarism. Students are not permitted to ask other students for answers to quiz questions. Such an action will be considered an academic integrity violation. For more information, see the University's Academic Integrity Policy at the following website: <http://sa.uncg.edu/handbook/academic-integrity-policy/>

NOTICE:

UNCG seeks to comply fully with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students requesting accommodations based on a disability must be registered with the Office of Accessibility Resources and Services (OARS) in 215 Elliott University Center, 334-5440, oars.uncg.edu

PACING YOUR WORK LOAD:

This course has been designed to allow for some flexibility in the time for completion of assignments. You should complete all the tasks in order. I recommend placing a check next to each task once it is completed. You should never wait until the last minute to try to complete a lot of tasks. I have included a suggested timeline for the books. You may choose to complete the readings early, and I do not recommend that you get far behind. The same is true for any of the class videos and slides. To allow for emergencies or sicknesses, it is a good strategy to attempt to stay at least a day or two ahead of the suggested schedule.
