Readings

Wheeler/Becker, Discovering the American Past: A Look at the Evidence. Vol. II, 5th edition. (WB).

Link/Wheeler, The South in the History of the Nation. Vol. II. (LW)

Ehrenreich, Nickel and Dimed: On (Not) Getting By in America.

Other readings noted on the syllabus are available electronically on blackboard.

There is also a textbook on reserve at Jackson Library: Faragher and others, Out of Many, 4th ed., for anyone who would like to consult a textbook.

Discussion Sections

Students in this class are required to sign up for a discussion section. Attendance at these discussion sections is mandatory. You are expected to do all assigned readings and be prepared to discuss them during the section meetings. Quizzes may be given periodically to test you on the readings. Your class participation grade will be based on your participation in the discussion sections and the grades for any reading quizzes you are given.

Make-up exams

If you cannot an exam on the scheduled dates, you must, if at all possible, let me know before the exams in order to arrange a make-up. If prior notification is impossible, you must contact me within forty-eight hours of the exam to schedule a makeup.

Class attendance

Regular attendance at all lectures and discussion sections is expected. You are allowed three unexcused absences in this class. Excused absences, such as for illness, require documentation. Every unexcused absence after three will lower the student's final grade by one letter grade. More than five unexcused absences may result in the student being dropped from the course. Frequent tardiness is not allowed. Two tardies will count as one unexcused absence.

Other things you should know about this class

1. Please turn off all cell phones, pagers, beepers, or any other items that make noise before entering the classroom.
2. Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive an "F" for the course. The out-of-class writing assignments do not require that you consult any outside materials. If you do consult outside materials, make sure that you use them only for deep background understanding, not as the basis for your essays. Your essays should be based on your own ideas, conceived after reading the assigned chapters in the Wheeler/Becker book, and written in your own words. For more on the University's Academic Integrity Policy, go to the following website: <http://studentconduct.uncg.edu/policy/academicintegrity/>
3. No incompletes will be allowed as final grades for this course, except in the most dire, unavoidable, and tragic of circumstances.
