GUIDELINES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Attendance Policy: I require regular attendance for this course. We cover a lot of material and one absence could mean missing one hundred years or more of history! If you are not prepared to attend consistently, come on time, and stay until the end of the class period, please drop this course. If you miss more than 3 classes you may be dropped from the course at the sole discretion of the instructor. If you miss 3 classes in a row you will definitely be dropped. I will drop registered students who do not attend the first two classes or notify me, so that others may add in.
2. Attentiveness Policy: If you are not prepared to pay attention and take careful notes during class periods, please drop this course. I do not make seating assignments, but if I find that students are talking together during class or behaving in such a way that distracts me or other students I will require them to change their seats. I do not allow laptops in the classroom, except in documented cases of medical need. In those cases I will require students to seat themselves so as not to distract others. Cellphones and other electronic equipment must be turned off and stowed away from desks during the class period.
3. Please read the material specified for a given class period or periods before coming to class. It is essential to keep up with the syllabus. Please let me know if you lose your syllabus and I will be happy to supply you with another copy. Course syllabi are also listed on the History department website: www.uncg.edu/his
4. Please bring to class the primary source readings for that day. We will be examining the texts together in class.
5. Grades will be based primarily on three take-home assignments: two exams and a final essay. I will explain these in detail after the drop/add period has ended. Assignments must be word-processed, double-spaced and spell-checked, and written in 12-point font and standard margins. I require hard copies, not e-mail attachments, unless you have cleared this with me ahead of time. I expect correctness and clarity of exposition, as well as an understanding of course content. To me history and the way it is expressed are not two different things, but rather, intimately connected. I also factor in class participation when assigning grades. Participation may take various forms, including questions, comments, responses to texts, videos and other media, and general mental alertness and intellectual engagement with and curiosity about the material. These are all important factors in university learning.

6. All assignments are due on the days specified in the syllabus.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAUSE: If you are for ANY reason unable to hand in assignments on time it is YOUR responsibility to contact me beforehand. If I am not contacted directly or by message I will not accept late assignments. See front page of syllabus for ways of contacting me.

7. If you do not think you will be able to abide by these guidelines, please drop the course so that someone else can take it. The last day to drop the course without academic penalty is Wednesday March 14.

8. BUT: if these guidelines seem reasonable to you, and you would like to be introduced to a fascinating and influential culture, improve your analytical and writing skills, and hear some great music, please stay in the course!
