Course Objectives:

When, how, and why did European nations colonize Africa, the second largest continent in the world? And, an equally important question to consider: What are the legacies of European colonialism that exist in Africa today? This course examines major themes in recent African history and addresses misunderstandings and debates about the history of Africa during the colonial period and since. Topics to be covered include: the imposition of colonial rule and wars of resistance; styles of colonial rule; theories of underdevelopment and the effects of colonial policies; Pan-Africanism, nationalism, and independence movements; the creation of apartheid; decolonization; and issues facing independent Africa such as neo-colonialism and the dismantling of apartheid. We will survey these themes with reference to the regions of west, east, central, and southern Africa.

Student Learning Goals – At the completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Identify when and how European nations colonized the continent of Africa;
- Explain the ways African peoples resisted colonial rule and how they organized liberation movements;
- Analyze and discuss the specific geographical contexts and chronologies of historical trends and events.
