

EDITH W. BRADY

EXPERIENCE

High Point Museum, High Point, NC
Director, July 2009-Present

University of North Carolina Greensboro, NC
Adjunct Public History Professor, January 2009-Present
Teach graduate seminar in museum education.

High Point Museum, High Point, NC
Curator of Education, November 2000-June 2009

Charlotte Museum of History & Hezekiah Alexander Homesite, Charlotte, NC
Education Coordinator, 1998 - 2000

Raleigh City Museum, Raleigh, NC
Education Intern, May-December 1997; Educator, January-July 1998

Historic Oak View County Park, Raleigh, NC
Education and Programming Assistant, May 1997-June 1998

EDUCATION

M.A. Public History, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC, 1998
Graduate coursework in museology, North Carolina and Southern history
B.A. History, Queens University of Charlotte, NC, 1996, summa cum laude
Summer French Study, University of Limoges, France, May-June 1995
Duke Certificate in Nonprofit Management, Duke University Continuing Studies, Durham, NC, 2005

HONORS

North Carolina State University Fellowship (1996-1998)
Norris W. Preyer Award in History (1996)
Phi Alpha Theta, History Honor Society
Queens College Presidential Scholarship

PRESENTATIONS

All You Need to Know to Get Folks in the Door: Expanding Audience Through Programming,
Presented with Peter Koch at 1999 NCMC Annual Meeting, Winston Salem

Best Practices in Museum Education, Workshop facilitator, 2005 NCMC Annual Meeting, Salisbury

Look Three Ways: Collaborations Between Museums, Universities and Communities, Presented with Benjamin Filene, Director of Public History, UNCG; Julius Clark, Director, Rosetta C. Baldwin Museum; Hayley Chambers, Jeremiah DeGennaro, Ashley Black, Graduate Students, Museum Studies, UNCG at 2008 NCMC Annual Meeting, Fayetteville

Museum and School Partnerships: They Still Exist!, Presented with Jonathan McRae, Scotland County Schools and Morris Johnson, Guilford County Schools at 2009 NCMC Annual Meeting, Rock Hill, SC

Strategic Plan Planning, 2010 NCMC Annual Meeting, Raleigh

Edith W. Brady

Working Towards Accreditation One Step at a Time, 2014 NCMC Annual Meeting, Durham

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE & AFFILIATIONS

Southern Association of Women Historians

North Carolina Museums Council: Governmental Affairs Chair, 2008-2010

FOCoS Consultant 2006

Professional Development Chair, 2004-2006

Newsletter Editor, 2000- 2004

2002 Annual Meeting Local Arrangements Chair

Southeastern Museums Conference

American Alliance of Museums: EdCom (Education Committee): NC State representative 2003-2004; Southeast EdCom Secretary 2005-06; Southeast EdCom Chair 2008-2010

NC Museum Education Roundtable

Duke Certificate in Nonprofit Management Program: Site Coordinator, 2002-2009

Field Reviewer for IMLS Museums for America Grants, 2004, 2005

Field Reviewer for IMLS Learning Opportunity Grants, 2003

Grant Reviewer for Curriculum Connections through Cultural Education grants funded by the Cultural Education Collaborative of Charlotte, NC, June 2000

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

African American Heritage Society of High Point: Advisory Committee Member, 2000-2001

Communities in Schools: Jumpstart Reading Tutor, 2002-2008; Dancing with the High Point Stars Fundraiser 2014

High Point Area Arts Council: Day in the Park Committee 2003-Present, Committee Chair 2004-2010; Community Outreach Committee 2005, 2006

Leadership High Point, Class of 2004

Junior League of High Point: Member 2004-Present; Board Member at Large 2006-07;

Teacher Mini- Grants Review Committee 2006-2008;

Community Vice President 2007-08; Children's Learning Center Chair

2007-09, President-Elect 2009-10, President 2010-11, Sustainer

Adviser 2014-2015

United Way of Greater High Point Community Investment Program Review Team, 2005-07

Teen Leadership High Point Steering Committee 2007

Guilford Education Alliance, Education Leadership Academy 2007

Guilford County Schools Parent Academy Advisory Team, 2010-11, 2014-Present

Week of the Young Child Steering Committee (Guilford Partnership for Children) 2013-14

Guilford County Partnership for Children, Board Member 2014-Present